Do you have a disability or health problem? Yes No

A disability can be defined in a very broad sense and could be a physical or a mental impairment, please therefore give details & the effects of your disability on your day to day activities and any other information that you feel would help us accommodate your needs and thus meet our obligation under the Disability Discrimination Act 1995:

Criminal Records Bureau Disclosure and ISA Registration

Farnborough College of Technology complies fully with the Criminal Records Bureau (CRB) Code of Practice regarding the correct handling, storage, retention and disposal of Disclosures and Disclosure information, and undertakes not to discriminate unfairly against any subject of a disclosure on the basis of a conviction or other information revealed.

Since the post for which you are applying may involve unsupervised access to children and vulnerable adults, it will be exempt from the provisions of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exemptions Amendment Order 1986). Candidates who are offered an interview for such posts will be required to disclose details, if any, of all criminal convictions (including 'spent' convictions), cautions, bind-over orders, reprimands and warnings issued by the police. The College will regard any failure to disclose your criminal record as a breach of trust. It is College Policy that all candidates will be subject to a Disclosure check if offered the post for which the application has been made. Please note that the College is unable to consider an application further if the candidate declines to complete the Disclosure form.

Have you been barred by the Independent Safeguarding Authority to work with vulnerable groups and placed on a barred list? Yes No

Have you been convicted of any offences or received a caution, bind-over order, warning or reprimand from the police? Yes No

Are you currently subject to an ongoing police enquiry? Yes No

If you answered yes to any above question, please give details :

Your signature below will be regarded as you signifying your agreement to undergo a CRB check.
